

corner

right

farthest

end

Right: We have two sides of our body, the right side and the left side. This is the right side.

I raised my right hand up in the air.

Prompt:

Point to the right side of the page.

Raise your right hand.

Who is sitting on your right?

Who writes with their right hand?

End: End is when an activity is all done or completed. It can also mean to be the very last.

At the end of the trip, we stopped to see Grandma.

She was the last person in line, she was at the end of the line.

Prompt:

When is it good to be at the end of the line?

Have student tell what happened at the end of the story.

What letter is at the end of your name?

Corner: A corner is where two sides meet to make a point or an angle.

The mouse hid in the corner of the cage.

Prompt:

Have a student go stand in the corner of the room, corner of the rug.

Have student show the corner of the paper, book, desk, eye.

Farthest: Farthest means to be a very long way from something.

We drove to California and that was the farthest I have ever been from home.

Which room in the building is the farthest from our classroom?

Which student is sitting the farthest away from me?

Which letter is the farthest away from A?